

Trial Task for applicants

This is the trial task for developers.

Given is hotel data distributed in five xml files and one json file.

Write a converter, that creates one json document out of those files. All contents of the xml files should be included in the one json file, but there should not be duplicates. Download Images that are referenced inside the files (only images).